

Colorado Rocky Mountain School

What Boarding Students Should Bring To School

Dorm rooms are equipped with desks, desk chairs, closets (with shelves and hanging space), and twin beds (height is adjustable: space underneath ranges from 14" to 33").

The following is a list of items that a boarding student will need during their stay at CRMS:

Laptop (required)
Formal Dinner clothes (required): suit or blazer, dress shirt, tie, slacks, blouse, dress or skirt, and dress shoes
Pillow(s)
Bed sheets (two sets; regular twin size)
Mattress pad
Blanket or comforter
Towels and washcloths (2 to 3 sets)
Small wastebasket
Desk lamp
Clock with alarm (required for 9th & 10th graders)
Hangers
Laundry bag
Toiletry bag or shower caddy
Bathrobe
Flip-flops (for shower)
Airtight food containers
Microwave-safe dish/bowl

The following items are not essential, but will make the student's life more comfortable:

Shelf organizers (for closet)
Storage bins (for underneath bed)
Small area rug
Backpack or messenger bag (for books & laptop)
Bike with lock, helmet and lights (Colorado law requires white light on the front and a red reflector on the rear)
Outlet extender (with surge protector and USB charging ports)
Mirror
Mini fridge
Humidifier
Small fan
Decorations: posters, art, and/or photos
Removable adhesive strips for hanging decorations (no tacks or nails allowed - we recommend 3M Command Hanging Strips)
Favorite things that make your room feel like home

Here is a list of items students will not need and should NOT bring for their stay at school:

Video Game Console
Television
Pets of any kind
Weapons (including pellet guns, Nerf guns, airsoft guns)
Knives
Cooking appliances
Flammables (candles, incense, lighters, matches)
Smoking materials
Valuables (jewelry and other expensive items)
A Subwoofers and large speakers
Wireless routers